Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

Morningside Center is providing this Notice of Privacy Practices because the privacy of your health information is very important to you and to us, and in compliance with federal regulations. By "your health information" we mean the information that we maintain that specifically identifies you and your health status.

Summary

This Notice describes how we use your health information within Morningside Center and disclose it outside Morningside Center, and why.

The Notice covers:

- Uses or disclosures which do not require your written authorization.
  - >> Treatment, payment, and health care operations.
  - >> Uses or disclosures of your health information to which you may object.
  - >> Uses or disclosures required or permitted.
- Uses or disclosures which require your written authorization.
- Your rights as a resident regarding privacy of your health information.
- Our duties in protecting your health information.
- Complaints, contact person, effective date, and acknowledgement.

Uses or Disclosures Which Do Not Require Your Written Authorization

Treatment, Payment, and Health Care Operations

We use or disclose your health information to carry out your treatment; to obtain payment for your treatment; and to conduct health care operations. For example:

- >> For treatment, we use your health information to plan, coordinate, and provide your care. We disclose your health information for treatment purposes to physicians and other health care professionals outside our facility who are involved in your care.
- >> For payment, we use your health information to prepare documentation required by your insurance company or HMO or by Medicare or Medicaid. We disclose that part of your health information that these organizations require to pay us.
- >> For health care operations, we use or disclose your health information, for example, to improve the quality of our services, to plan better ways of treating residents, and to evaluate staff performance.

Uses or Disclosures of Your Health Information to Which You May Object

We may use or disclose your health information for the following purposes, unless you ask us not to.

- Facility directories. We maintain a resident directory including, for each resident, name, location in our facility. We may disclose your health condition in general terms to people who ask for you by name or share your health status with a volunteer providing one-to-one visits. We will make known your religious affiliation only to clergy. We may use names, photographs, and dates of birth on activity birthday lists, calendars, bulletin boards, and/or facility newsletter.
- Informing family and friends. We may disclose your health information to family, friends, or others identified by you who are involved in your care.
- Assistance in disaster relief efforts.
- For fundraising activities. We may contact you or your family for fundraising purposes. If you do not wish to be contacted for this purpose, please contact Administrator and indicate that you do not wish to receive fundraising communication from us.
- Confirming appointments.
- Informing you about treatment alternatives or other health-related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.

If you object to our use of your health information for any of these purposes please contact:
Joan Sweets, Administrator

- Law enforcement purposes, for example to report certain types of wounds or other physical injuries or to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person.
- Use by coroners, medical examiners, or funeral directors.
- Facilitating organ, eye, or tissue donation.
- Research, provided that very strict controls are enforced.
- Averting a serious threat to your health or safety or that of the public.
- Specialized government functions such as military or veterans' affairs; national security, and intelligence activities.
- Workers' compensation.

Uses or Disclosures Which Require Your Written Authorization

Your written authorization, which you may revoke (in writing), is required if we use or disclose your health information for any purpose other than those stated above. In particular your authorization is required if:

- We use or disclose your health information for marketing of goods or services.

Your Rights As A Resident to Privacy Of Your Health Information

- Right to Request Restrictions

You have the right to request restrictions on our uses and disclosures of your health information, however we may refuse to accept the restriction.
- Right to Request Confidential Communications

You have the right to request that we communicate with you confidentially, for example to speak with you only in private; to send mail to an address you designate; or to telephone you at a number you designate. Your request must be in writing. We will make every attempt to honor your request.
- Right to Request Access to Your Health Information

You have the right to request access to your health information in order to inspect or copy it. Your request must be in writing. We may deny your request and, if so, you may request a review of the denial. However, we will make every attempt to honor your request.
- Right to Request an Amendment of Your Health Information

You have the right to request an amendment to your health information. Your request must be in writing and must provide a reason for the amendment. We may deny your request and, if so, you may submit a statement of disagreement. However, we will make every attempt to honor your request.
- Right to Request an Accounting of Disclosures of Your Health Information

You have the right to request an accounting of our disclosures of your health information for purposes other than treatment, payment, and health care operations. We will make every attempt to honor your request. We are not required to provide an accounting for disclosures before April 14, 2003 or for more than 6 years prior to the date of your request.
- Right to Obtain a Paper Copy of this Notice

If you received this Notice electronically, you have the right to receive a paper copy.

To exercise any of these rights please write or telephone our Administrator, Joan Sweets.
